

KanCare Expansion

HOW IT MATTERS FOR KANSANS

EXAMPLE OF FAMILIES IN THE HEALTH INSURANCE GAP

FATHER

Construction worker

$12/hour

30 hours/week =
$18,720/year

Can't afford his employer's health insurance plan.

MOTHER

Homemaker & part-time food service

$8/hour

10 hours/week =
$4,160/year

Employer doesn't offer insurance for part-time status.

→ $22,880 Total Annual Income ←

HEALTH INSURANCE ELIGIBILITY

KanCare Eligibility

The children are eligible for KanCare.

The parents are not eligible for KanCare because they make more than $8,019.

Health Insurance Marketplace

Tax credits start at $24,300, so the parents make too little to qualify for federal financial assistance.

The parents remain uninsured in the health insurance gap.

KanCare Expansion would CLOSE the GAP – Coverage up to $33,534 for a working family of 4